During the Christmas season, we see "Star(s) of Wonder" everywhere. They represent that holy star that was a vivid symbol to the wise men that the miraculous birth they had awaited for so long had occurred, and then led them directly to the tiny manger stall they sought. We keep the tradition of that symbol alive at Christmas to remind us of the miracles all around us and keep us vigilantly hopeful for an arrival at a place of comfort and fulfillment. For us, the Star of Wonder represents the brilliantly sparkling memories of Christmas traditions with loved ones, and the warm, radiant glow that being home for the holidays brings to our hearts! So the songs we have chosen each have a special reason for being included; from tunes we grew up listening to, to musical memories we've been blessed enough to create through the years, to songs we've been gifted with by dear friends, each one is a glimpse into what Christmas is to Dangerous Curves!

"When you bring their voices together, something magical happens."
"Reminiscent of the Andrews sisters, but with a more modern sensibility."
